Summer Art Camp Returning this June at the Zanesville Museum of Art

ZANESVILLE, Ohio– The Zanesville Museum of Art’s Summer Art Camp is returning this June after a two-year hiatus due to the COVID-19 Pandemic. Camps start June 1 and run the entire month of June. Preschoolers through sixth graders can enjoy Summer Art Camps at the museum. Summer Art Camp is one of the most popular education initiatives that the museum offers and the ZMA is happy to bring it back.

“Summer Art Camps are a fantastic creative outlet for local children,” stated ZMA Education Coordinator Misty Johnson. “Campers get to meet new friends, explore the ZMA galleries, play games, go on scavenger hunts, and create their own exciting art projects inspired by their museum adventures. We are so excited to offer this popular initiative onsite once again.”

About the Camps

Art Safari Camp

Children will go on an art safari and find inspiration from the animals in the ZMA galleries. Then they’ll create their own wildlife-inspired masterpieces during this wild Summer Camp. Art Safari Camp runs the first week of June for grades preschool through sixth.

Fantasy Art Camp

Children will dive into make-believe worlds and create their own art filled with unicorns, dragons, and mermaids. This fantastical camp runs the week of June 13 for children grades preschool through third.

Science Art Camp

Children will explore the exciting relationship between science and art while experimenting with materials to make their own two and three-dimensional masterpieces. Science Art Camp runs the week of June 20 for grades Kindergarten through sixth and the week of June 27 for preschoolers.

Hero Art Camp

Children will discover their own superpowers and create action-packed artwork inspired by their favorite superheroes. This superpowered Summer Art Camp runs the week of June 27 for grades kindergarten through third.
