Zanesville Museum of Art Receives Grant for New ZMA Talks Programming

ZANESVILLE, Ohio– The Zanesville Museum of Art has received a grant from the Taylor-McHenry Memorial Fund for its upcoming series of educational lectures entitled ZMA Talks.

About the Program

Beginning October 2022, the ZMA will host a new educational program titled “ZMA Talks.” This new series, a reworking of the museum’s former series titled “Perspective Lectures,” has several main objectives:

1. Promote greater awareness of the museum’s collection of local and regional art and historical objects.
2. Provide free public access to educational opportunities within the one-of-a-kind, enriching, learning environment of the Zanesville Museum of Art.
3. Provide excellent approachable educational speaking events that appeal to and welcome a broader community audience.

Upcoming ZMA Talks

Thursday, October 6, 2022, Convicts, Pavers, and Controversies: Brickmaking in Two Southeastern Ohio State Prisons with ZMA Docent Michael Sims

ZANESVILLE MUSEUM of ART

Thursday, November 3, 2022, Tell Your Story: How to Record a Memoir to Preserve Your Family History for Generations To Come with Composer and Recording Artist David Schubach

Thursday, December 1, 2022, Behind the Scenes: The Gant House Archives with Vice President of the Nelson T. Gant Foundation Todd Ware

The generous continued support from the Taylor-McHenry Memorial Foundation allows the museum to put on these exciting programs and much more for the community.
